SHREE NIRANJANANAND NATH

FOREWORDS

Sambhavami Yuga-Yuga—the Saying by the Lord Krishna reminds us the presence of Supreme Power in all ages. In the present Iron Age, too, the Divinity is expressed in the words of sages and saints. The book 'Bhawani' an English expression of Shri Bhawani Shatak—a book comprising of the hymns of praises of the Mother of the Universe based on legendary heritage of ours and revelation by Mahatma Shri Niranjan—was written long back—more than two decades earlier but it has taken a shape when time matured. In this book Hindi words in Devanagari Lipi have been written in Roman script with a view to express them in English. Devotional words are very much thought-provoking and they have been expressed in simple and lucid way. Several books on the occult subject have been brought to light in series under the name of Shri Niranjan Granth Mala and the present one written by Rev. Shri Shri Charan is an addition to the same.

We have limited means out of which we have been able to bring out the present edition of the book. Features and shortcomings are both in the hands of the readers but we hope that they will not be bewildered by the later but encourage us by pinpointing them. We have all thanks for those who have rendered their services in various ways. Jai Shri Nath !

—Shri Peeyush.

SHREE SOMANAND NATH

INTRODUCTION

Shree Bhawani-Shatak—a collection of one hundred and eight rhythmic prayer-verses of Mahatma Shree Niranjan—though marked by extreme economy of expression—is the recognition and dedication to the Supreme Being overseeing all.

This hidden treasure does not consist of only revelation—the complete Mastery of ultimate knowledge; it also signifies a quest of unknown. It asks questions and answers come as new visions unfold in themselves. This attitude of expression, typical of higher thought leads to a very delicate and poised sense of truth which preclude every type of dogmatism. The attitude here is more philosophical than religious according to which a fixed and literal explanation is given in respect of every aspect of the unseen reality.

What is given here is a deep personal experience with subtle emotional modulations. He accepts poetry with the subtle power of rhythm as a medium of expression. To a reader the mystical experience leads to silence because the ultimate is inexpressible.

Through the revealed words of Shree Bhawani Shatak we find an intimate friendship established among them. The link is lying hidden in every word. This 'Shatak' is the symbiosis of the paths of devotion, knowledge, mysticism, splendour and action.

The association of the concrete and the abstract, the material and the spiritual is typical of Shree Bhawani Shatak In Saying, (Ravi Men Prabha, Chandra Men Chandrika Too) "Thou art the Cosmic Light of the Sun and the Moon" The seer poet expresses the divine presence in terms of light and intelligence. It is steady in the midst of moving things.

In describing "Distributor of Soma-nectar". The poet identifies the Soma-Pavamana with the Supreme Being, to Whom the libation of Soma is made.

The whole pious book is full of courage and wisdom; energy, youthfulness, Victorious spirit, strength skill, zeal quickness of movement and joyousness of soul; kindness, liberality, love, care of the diseased, affability, gentleness, delightfulness, fatherliness, motherliness, friendliness, benifience, opposition to evil bliss, beauty, splendour, wonderfulness, adorableness, love of poetry and music and wealth mainly spiritual. From this we can construct the vedic code of life-moral as well as aesthetic.

Every word in this book is full of significance, mainly spiritual. I pray the Almighty.

BHAWANI

Bhawani-a Divine Mother or Supreme Consciousness is vebicled by Prakriti. She is a Primordial Shakti or ljmitless Bliss. She is the seed of all the motionless and moving elements. She is the mirror of Shiva Who experiences the identity in Her always. From limitless ages She has been praised by the asp rants who identified themselves with Her-all pervading-Homogeneous Spirit or Brahma-Swaroop.

'Bhawani' is a lyrical Gospel of Divine Love sung by Bhagwan Niranjaa whose erperiences are not relative. As the Poet is a fully illumined sage having conquered the eternal divine kingdom, so is his "Bhawani" Which aids one to cross the ocean of existence and blows-up the existence of the world.

This work was originally sung in Hindi and here is the translation It it is for the readers to practise assiduously as prescribed by the Poet or as they like.

I pray to the Lord Preceptor—the Supreme Knower of Immortal Self having title of Vyas, the glorious Father.

I adore the Great Mother coming as a worldly mother but is Primitive Shakti and Goddess of the Universe.

Body-idea is but a servitor, spotless. Soul is the Dust of Almighty. Intuition is but a self-delight. The Intellect being so stainless the unutterable chanting is inconceivable and Infinite.

So is the Soul, the vital air or SWAN. Entirety of ocean resembles that of a drop. Life force of self moves in all bodies and everybody is full of light,

At every step there is a charm and illdestined escapes it. Your Abode is the Universe. O Embodied Spirit ! Almighty ! the Epithea of fire and omnipresent wings are the wheel of Time. Day and night move the wheel. Prayer is in form of metre or rhythm of the verse, O Bhawani ! is bestower of four fulfilments of life. Cheers and rejoicing to the Greatest Power is a boat in the inseperable ocean of the world.

SHREE BHAWANI SHATAK

वनी विश्व की वाटिका है विशाला,
 कुजे कोकिला मत्त त्रिपुराम्ब्र वाला ।

Bani— A garden, A bride. Vishwaki—Of universe. Vatika Hai—Orchard. Vishala—Wide. Kuje—Chirp, Warble. Kokila—Cuckoos. Matta—Mad, Intoxicated, Delighted. Tripuramba—Goddess of the 3-worlds, 3-Mothers. Mother Tripura. Bala—A girl, A goddess. Kali—A bud, A distortion of a Bija Mantra. Phool—Flower. Phal—Fruit. Patra—Leaves. Men Hai—Present in. Samayee—Filled. Para Brahma Rupam—As a Supreme Bliss. Bhawani m—To Goddess Bhawani. Bhajami—I adore.

The Garden or orchard of the Universe is wide spread, Delighted Cuckoos chirp p'asantly in it. Buds, leaves, flowers and fruits are full of life which is a park of Mother Goddess named Bhawani, Bala and Tripuramba. Every note praises Her power. I adore the Supreme Bliss Bhawani.

“Kuje Kakila Matta Tripuramba Bala”—

The Kundalini is the vital power of the universe. Her Vehicle is the Hansa of philosophy. She resides in the form of a coiled serpent in Mooladhar Chakra—the first of the Seven Chakras, the other six being Swadhithana, Manipura, Anahata, Vishuddhi, Agyan and Sahasrara in order.

All efforts in the form of chanting or meditations or cultivation of virtuous deeds are at the best calculated only to awaken the Serpent Power and make it move to Swadhisthana to Sahasrara—the thousand petalled Lotus—the seat of Para Brahma or Absolute. These seven Cosmic Centres or Planes of Consciousness are generalized into three Stages of Waking, Dreaming and Dreamless Sleep. The Waking is the Cosmic Virat Body. The Dreaming is Cosmic Hiranya Garbha Body. The Slumbering Consciousness is Iswara Body, The fourth is witness or solitary, spectator, passive and indifferent. So the three active states have three forces of Creation, Protection and Destruction actuated by three mothers, jointly addressed as Tripura Amba.

As such, the Kokila or Cuckoo is intoxicated in the pursuit.

This trio forms the PRANAVA or OM which is itself a Great Reality containing the three vedas, three qualities, three devatas, three stages, three divisions, three times, three genders, three dwellings and three consciousness of Antar (Internal), Bahya (external) and Ghancebhuta (Prajna)

Ha, Sa, Ra, Ka, La, Da—of mantra Called BALA are combined with three vowels of Ee, Ai and Au—the result is the mantra forming the three kutas called 'MATA', the Mother. This is in short an interpretation of Tripuramba.

Trivindu, Trishula, Trinetra, Triloki, Trilingi, Tripurantaki, Tridha, Trimurti, Trivikram, Avastha Trayee.—are somehow or other related to the Primitive Shakti-Bhawani, later adopting dual role making Herself relative from the absolute to enact as SAT, RAJA & TAMAS:

जया सिन्दुरी आरुणी रूपराशी,
महामूल्य-माणिक्य मौलि प्रकाशी ।
त्रिनेत्रा नमः शांकरी भास्वरानी,
परब्रह्म रूपा भवानी भजामि ॥२॥

Japa—Red flower, Colour Eviscora. Sinduri—Vermilionous. Aruni—Red. Roop Rashi—Store of beauty. Mahamulya—Of great value. Manikya—Ruby, Excellent. Mouli Prakashī—untwisted red colour thread being enlightened, Trinetra—with three eyes Namah—I worship. Shankaree—Spouse of Shankar. Bhasva Rani—Light-Maiden, Illuminating Deity. Parabrahma.....

Her body is red like vermilion or the red flower, colour Eviscora or the rising Sun. The Body Itself is a store of beauty. Even excellent ruby which adores Her like luminous thread can not account for its value. She is having three eyes. So I adore Illuminous Deity—the Spouse of Shiva. I worship the Supreme Bliss-Bhawani.

Trinetra—Three eyes of Sun, Moon & Fire.

The three eyes are said to be:—

- |                               |                        |

Kundalini as the guiding power associates herself with presiding deities of several cosmic centres. Guru or spiritual preceptor guides and helps to achieve the same end, the veils or Layers enmeshing kundalini begins to be cleared and supra-sensual vision appears before the mental eye of the aspirant.

On the other hand Raja yoga propounds a higher rational path to Control the mind, withdraws all the senses and plunges in meditation.

According to Vedānta Speculations lead to destruction of Ignorance about one's real nature which is Sat-Chit-Ananda or Existence-knowledge (consciousness)-Bliss.

The awakening Maha-Pran-Shakti manifests in negation of the body-idea and meditation on Mahavakyas.
